Discovery Season

From October 1-April 30, you can rent a full, electric, or tent site for less. At most state parks, including Joseph H. Stewart, you can get $4 off summer rates.

Limited Parking

Campsites are limited to eight people and only two extra vehicles per site to protect natural resources. All vehicles must be parked on pavement at the site or in a designated parking area. Once a site has three registered vehicles, no additional vehicles may enter the site. We strongly recommend that visitors rent enough sites to accommodate all of their vehicles. Park staff strictly enforce these regulations.

Need to cancel your reservation? Follow these guidelines: If your reservation is for today or tomorrow, call 541-560-3334. Otherwise, call Reservations Northwest at 1-800-452-5687.

Boating and Fishing

A boat ramp and moorage facility in the day-use area serves visiting boaters. The marina near the day-use parking lot offers a store with a cafe and boat rentals.

Anglers troll the 10-mile-long reservoir all year for trout and bass. A fish cleaning station is located next to the boat launch parking lot.

Take a Hike or Ride a Bike

Stretch your legs on the 5½ miles of hiking trails and 6 miles of bike paths within the park. The trails connect the day-use area with the campground and connect with other trails outside the park. Joseph Stewart is near the U.S. Forest Service's Upper Rogue River hiking trail, which connects with the Pacific Crest National Scenic Trail near Crater Lake.

What's Nearby

Crater Lake National Park is 36 miles northeast of Joseph Stewart on Highway 62. One of Oregon's most scenic attractions, the pristine blue lake attracts half a million visitors each year. The lake was formed more than 6,000 years ago by the eruption and collapse of Mt. Mazama. A wide variety of accommodations and visitor services are available, many of them year-round.

Casey State Recreation Site, 5 miles to the west, and Tou Velle State Recreation Site, 25 miles southwest, are outstanding access points for fishing on the Rogue River. Both parks have boat ramps and are nice places to picnic.

Cole Rivers Fish Hatchery, 4 miles west between Joseph Stewart and Casey State Recreation Site, is the largest hatchery in Oregon and is open for self-guided tours.

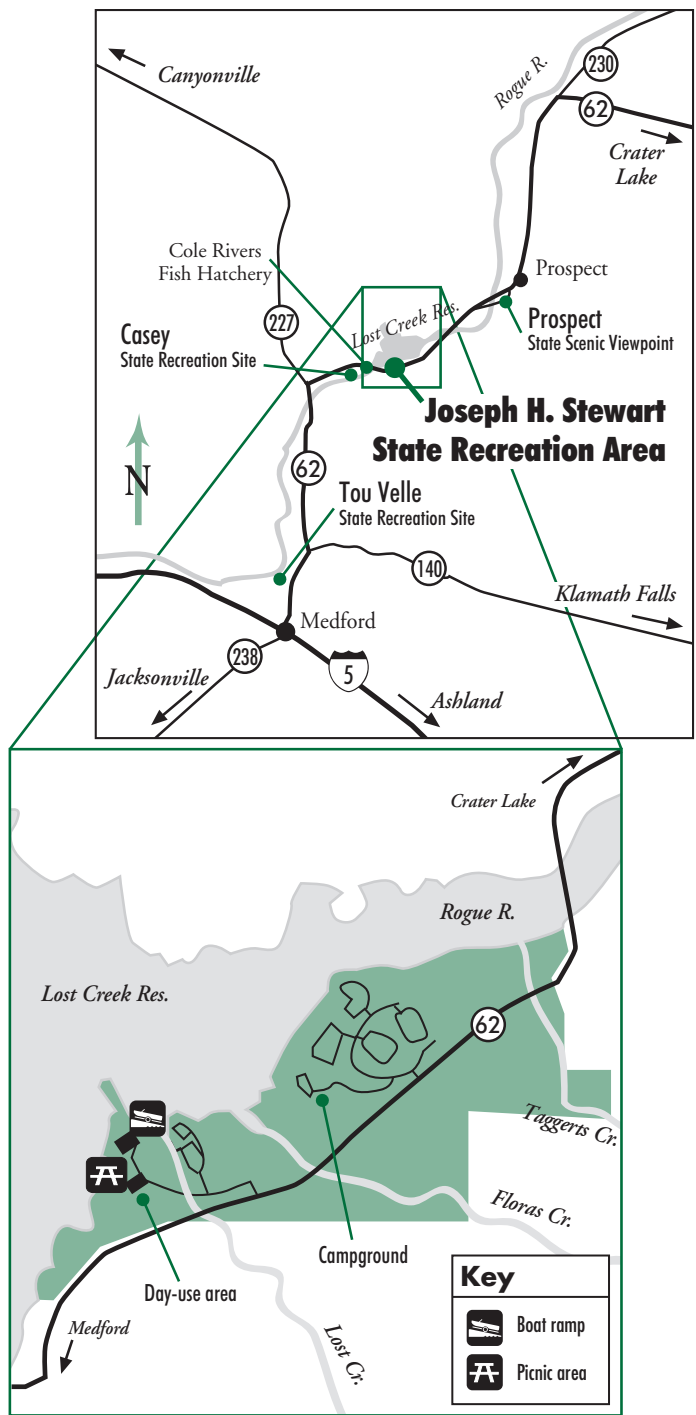

Prospect State Scenic Viewpoint, 10 miles northeast on Mill Creek Drive, features a forested trail to Pearsony Falls.

Jacksonville, just west of Medford, is a National Historic Landmark with commercial buildings, residences, churches, and museums dating back to the 1880s.

Ashland, 15 miles south of Medford, is home to the Oregon Shakespeare Festival. The season runs from mid-February through October.
