

Lost Creek Trail #776

Recreation Opportunity Guide

Distance..... 0.3 miles (one way)
Elevation..... 2350 feet
Snow Free May to November

Trail Highlights: The Lost Creek Nature Trail is a barrier-free interpretive trail that is adjacent to Lost Creek Campground. Interpretive signing educates visitors to the local ecosystem. The trail was constructed largely by various volunteer efforts. This is a very kid-friendly trail.

Trail Description:

This barrier-free trail consists of a paved loop with a short, decked, side trail. There are numerous benches along the trail, as well as two streamside platforms. The platforms overlook the confluence of area creeks, with fishing available from the first platform. A vault toilet is located out on the trail.
